A Message from Our Director

Dear Residents,

As we are moving into another exciting season, I want to take a moment to thank our community for your continued support and involvement in making West Chicago a great place to live and enjoy. It's because of you that the Park District remains a focus for recreation, connection, and growth.

This year, we are proud to share that we've been making significant strides in improving accessibility throughout our parks and facilities. We have been working on important ADA improvements, ensuring that everyone in our community can enjoy our spaces with ease and comfort. Additionally, we are actively working on a Capital Improvement Plan that will guide our efforts for long-term enhancements, ensuring that our parks and facilities remain beautiful, functional, and welcoming for generations to come.

In this guide and on our website, you'll find a wide range of programs, activities, and park amenities that reflect our commitment to enhancing your quality of life. From fitness classes and family events to volunteer opportunities and playgrounds, there's something for everyone! Whether you're looking to stay active, learn something new, or simply enjoy time with family and friends, our goal is to provide spaces and opportunities for you to connect and grow.

Thank you again for being an important part of our community. We look forward to seeing you in our parks and programs in the months ahead!

With warm regards and best wishes,

Gina Radun

WEST CHICAGO PARKS

ARBORETUM AND TREE PROGRAM

The West Chicago Park District manages over 400 acres of parks, woodlands, trails, and gardens. In 2018, the Park District took a new stance on tree management by completing a tree inventory and report; this launched the initiative to become an accredited Level II Arboretum. Research efforts revealed a 2,394 tree population of 106 different species in managed areas alone. Notably, Reed-Keppler Park is home to a community center, water park, artistic gardens, dog parks, and band shell, among many other amenities. The 100-acre park has the largest tree population in the Park District with 1056 trees of 134 distinct species and a recognizable 625 tree remnant oak stand. In 2024, the Park District renewed its Level II Accreditation, which will be in effect through 2029.

TREE GRANTS

In 2024 the West Chicago Park District received two impactful grants to further our journey as an arboretum! The Tree Equity Grant for Disadvantaged Communities, and the Recover, Replant, Restore! grant will provide support for conservation projects such as tree plantings and invasive removals that that will enhance our community's natural spaces for years to come.

A big part of these projects is community outreach and engagement, so we'd love to hear your thoughts and have you involved. Throughout the year, we'll have several informational sessions as well as practical, hands-on learning experiences related to pruning, removing invasives, and planting trees. Stay updated and sign up for volunteer opportunities by visiting our website at we-goparks.org.

TREE DONATION PROGRAM

Make a contribution that has lasting power! Take a positive and personal step toward improving the environment by donating a tree to the West Chicago Park District.

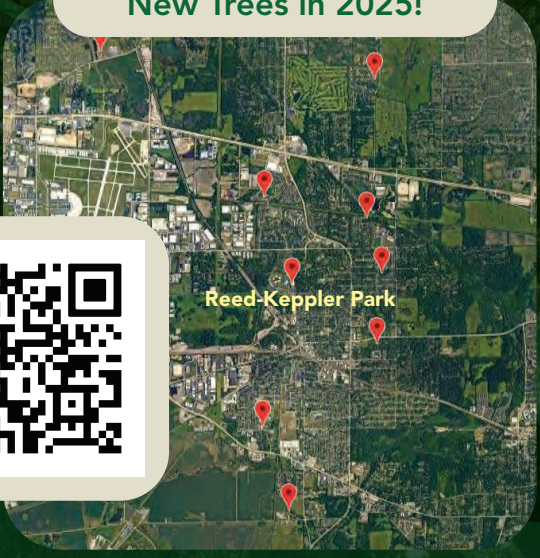

JOIN OUR VIP PROGRAM - VOLUNTEERS

The West Chicago Park District has multiple opportunities throughout the year for community members to help maintain and improve our parks! Volunteering provides many benefits including making a positive impact in the community, community service hours, advancing your career, new connections with others, fun and fulfillment in your life, and more!
